

LOCAL SOCIAL EVENTS

Heintzelman-Shain.
A romance began several weeks ago culminated last evening in the marriage of Harry L. Heintzelman and Miss Martha Shain, which was solemnized in Uniontown, Pa., at the residence of the officiating minister, the Rev. Edward Hodli, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church of that city. Mr. Heintzelman and Miss Shain motored to Uniontown yesterday afternoon and told no one where they were going. Upon their arrival there the ceremony was performed and they arrived home last night. Both are prominently connected in this city, the groom being the son of Harry L. Heintzelman, of Benoni avenue, and his bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Shain, of Maple avenue. Both have been popular in local society circles. Miss Shain had been a student at Miss Coyle's school in Philadelphia for the past two years and at the time of the elopement was preparing to go to Florida with her mother, where she was to have entered school for the winter.

To Charleston.
Edgar Taylor left today for Charleston where he has accepted a position with the State Highway commission. Mrs. Taylor who is with her mother, Mrs. Christine Snider at her home on Madison street will remain here for a short time and will join him later. They will probably be located in the vicinity of Charleston. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor returned here several weeks ago from the Philippine Islands, where they had spent the past three years.

To Hold Reception.
The faculty and student body of William R. White school will hold a reception to the parents of the patrons of the school on Friday evening. The affair promises to be a most enjoyable one and the patrons and friends of this school are invited to be present. Invitations were issued several days ago for the reception.

Four O'Clock Tea.
Mrs. Ernest Hutton and her sister, Miss Lucy Sipe, are entertaining this afternoon with a four o'clock tea of pretty appointments at the home of the former on Fairmont avenue. This is the second of a series of parties at which Mrs. Hutton and Miss Sipe have entertained.

Entertained for Guests.
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Angermeyer entertained at cards last evening at their home on Vermont avenue, honoring their guests, Mrs. James Wright and daughter, Miss Grace Wright, of New York. Three tables were in play during the evening and a salad lunch was served. Mrs. Wright and Miss Wright are returning shortly to their home.

Motored Here.
Mrs. Randolph Stalnaker and daughter-in-law, Mrs. James Baker, Mrs. Herbert Crawford, Mrs. William Harper, all of Beverly, arrived here yesterday and were with us until this morning of the former's sister, Mrs. Della Shinn, at her home on Pierpont avenue. They returned home this morning, accompanied by Mrs. Mabel Shinn Scott and Mrs. John Crumbaugh, the latter of Wilmington, Del., who will be the guests of Mrs. Stalnaker for several days.

Entertained Friends.
Honoring the fifteenth anniversary of his birth, Virgil Scott entertained a number of his friends at a birthday party at his home at 625 Columbia street last evening. Games were played during the evening and refreshments were served. The guests included John Hess, Raymond Garrett, Charles Vangelder, John Jenkins, Edward Loden, Nellie Clark, Irene Schooley, Grace Fitzhugh, Katie Riley, George Pell and Paul Pell.

Gave Shower.
Complimentary to Mrs. George Toothman, a recent bride, Miss Elsie Bell entertained with a prettily appointed dinner party and shower last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Parker, on Coleman avenue. Twelve girl friends of the honor guest who before her marriage was Miss Nina Talkington were entertained.

Returned from Ohio.

YOU CAN HOLD THE TINIEST DOG IN THE WORLD IN THE PALM OF YOUR HAND

NEW YORK—Here is the tiniest dog in the world, a trifle over one pound and can be held in the palm of the hand. "Flip" is the name of this Pekingese, which has been presented to Elaine Hammerstein, Selznick star, for—burglar protection! "Flip" has a very shrill voice, regardless of his size. "Flip" is one of a pair of dogs which has attracted nation-wide attention.
